Foam? Is this a joke?
Its not a joke, but this is supposed to be a "family friendly pg clean" comic. Now that I think about it this comic feels like it was very improvised and the main thing I didnt do yet is look at the other side. So... what is at the other side?

Wait... this comic is no longer in a family friendly contest... which means...
WHICH MEANS I CAN COVER MORE DARK AND DISTURBING TOPICS!

Lemme recap some stuff.
And by recap I mean copy and paste.
The Reality Stone is a remnant of one of the six singularities which existed before the universe. After the universe came into existence, four cosmic beings known as the Cosmic Entities forged the energies of these singularities into six immensely powerful objects called the Infinity Stones. This stone represents reality, as it possesses the power to bend the very laws of reality and physics, converting matter into dark matter.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

Yeah that isnt working... sounds too robotic.
Imma recap it in a "fun" way!
Also, I should note that in this universe the events of Avengers: Infinity War and Avengers: Endgame did not happen yet. Also also, since my gauntlet is not based off of the appe–

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

This: is my best depiction of Malekith, the leader of the Dark Elves. He used the Reality Stone to create the weapon called the Aether.
Every 5000 years, The Convergence caused the 9 Realms to be aligned. Malekith wanted to take advantage of this and put the 9 Realms into eternal darkness. BTW, Earth is 1 of the 9 Realms.
I am so evil!

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

Hey.
The Asgardians then stopped them of course.
Bor then hid it for millennia where no-one could find it.
I has to protect it by not protecting it!

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

Around 4000 years later, in 2013 Jane Foster just randomly stumbled into a portal. She got possessed by the Reality Stone and was taken to Asgard.
I think I should see a do–
Nonsense, no doctors needed! I will take you to Asgard!
Malekith then woke up from his sleep and attacked Frigga, Loki and Thors mother.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

It seems as if Im dying.
Malekith then fought Thor and Loki but the Reality Stone ended up killing him. The irony that the thing he seeked so much ended up causing his demise. He then had his limbs scattered across the universe.

The Reality Stone (as the Aether) was given to the Collector and then it somehow ended up in space where I found it.
I lost it because of a bet and the guy who was also a Ravager lost it in space. Moron.

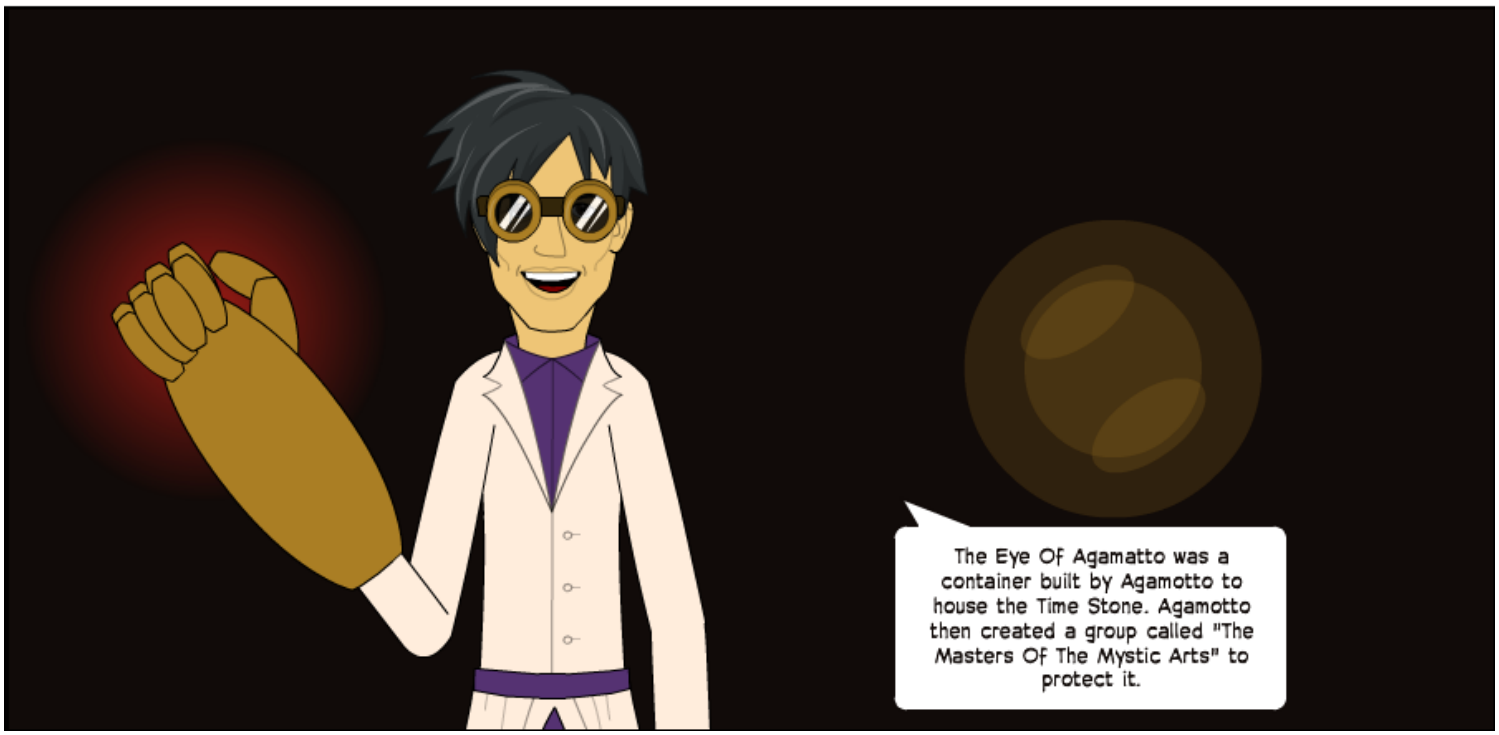
The Quest For Infinity Stones 2



The Eye Of Agamatto was a container built by Agamotto to house the Time Stone. Agamotto then created a group called "The Masters Of The Mystic Arts" to protect it.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

Although I have no idea why Dr. Strange didnt have it protected.
After hundreds of years the first known person to open it was Dr. Strange and he used the Stone on an apple and to get lost pages of a book back.

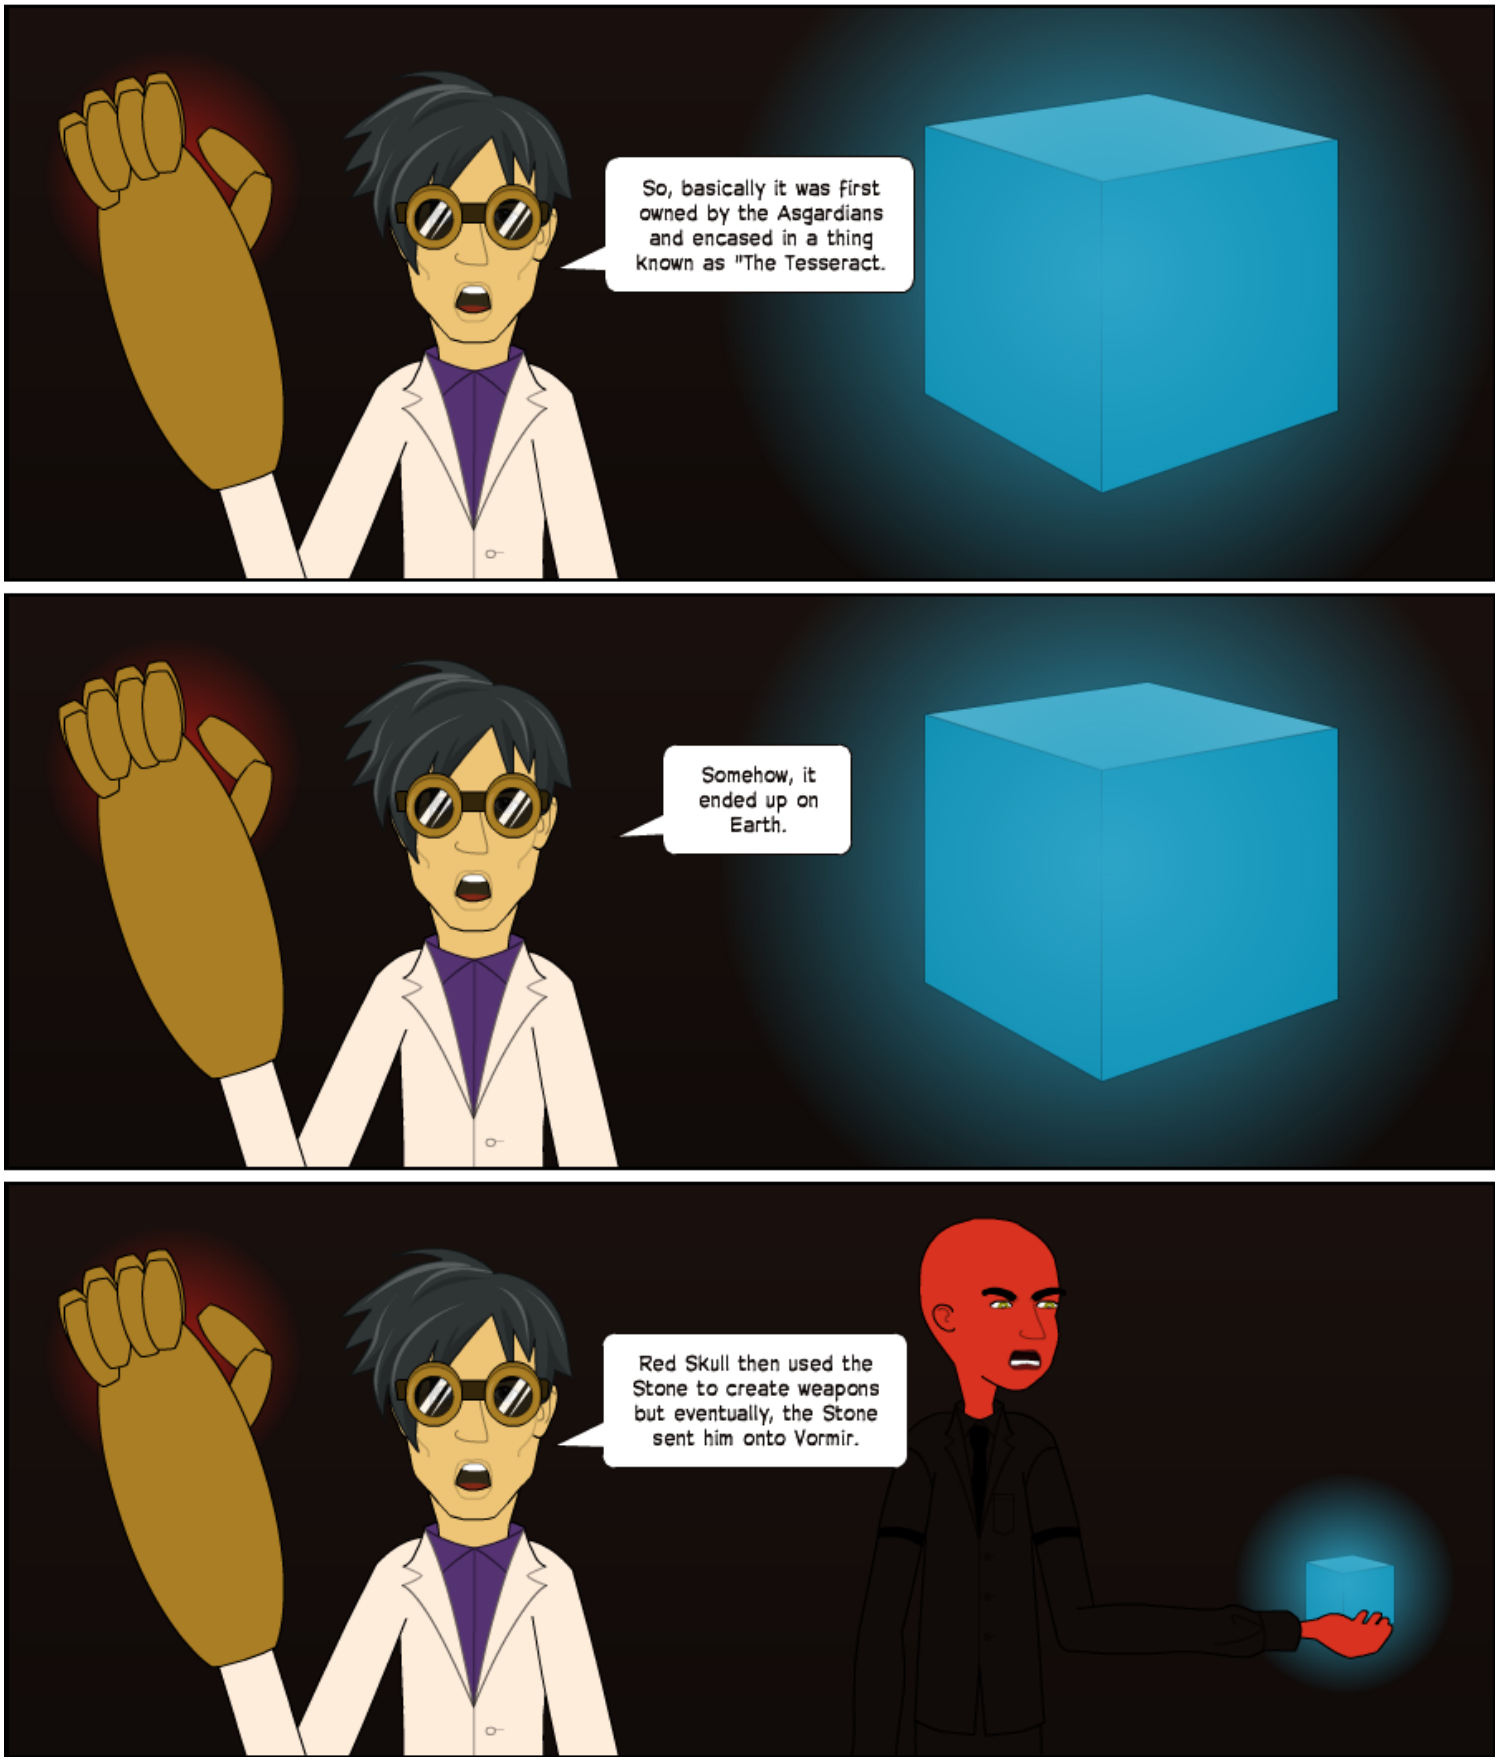
The Quest For Infinity Stones 3



So, basically it was first owned by the Asgardians and encased in a thing known as "The Tesseract.
Somehow, it ended up on Earth.
Red Skull then used the Stone to create weapons but eventually, the Stone sent him onto Vormir.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

The Tesseract was fortunately found in the Arctic by Howard Stark and after founding S.H.I.E.L.D. it was put into a "safe place".
Project P.E.G.A.S.U.S. had a scientist whom was secretly a Kree, Mar-Vell.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

By 2010, the World Security Council had reactivated Project P.E.G.A.S.U.S., an attempt to harness the Tesseract's power into advanced weaponry. Following Thor's arrival on Earth, S.H.I.E.L.D. hired Doctor Erik Selvig to study the alien artifact and accelerate their progress.
Loki then used it to attack Earth.
But then it was taken to Asgard and then to the Statesman and I stole it.

The Mind Stone was originally the power source of the Scepter.
Wielded by Loki, but then HYDRA confiscated it.
It was used to give the Maximoff twins powers (dont ask why Quicksilver looks like Quicksilver from the FoxX-Men universe).

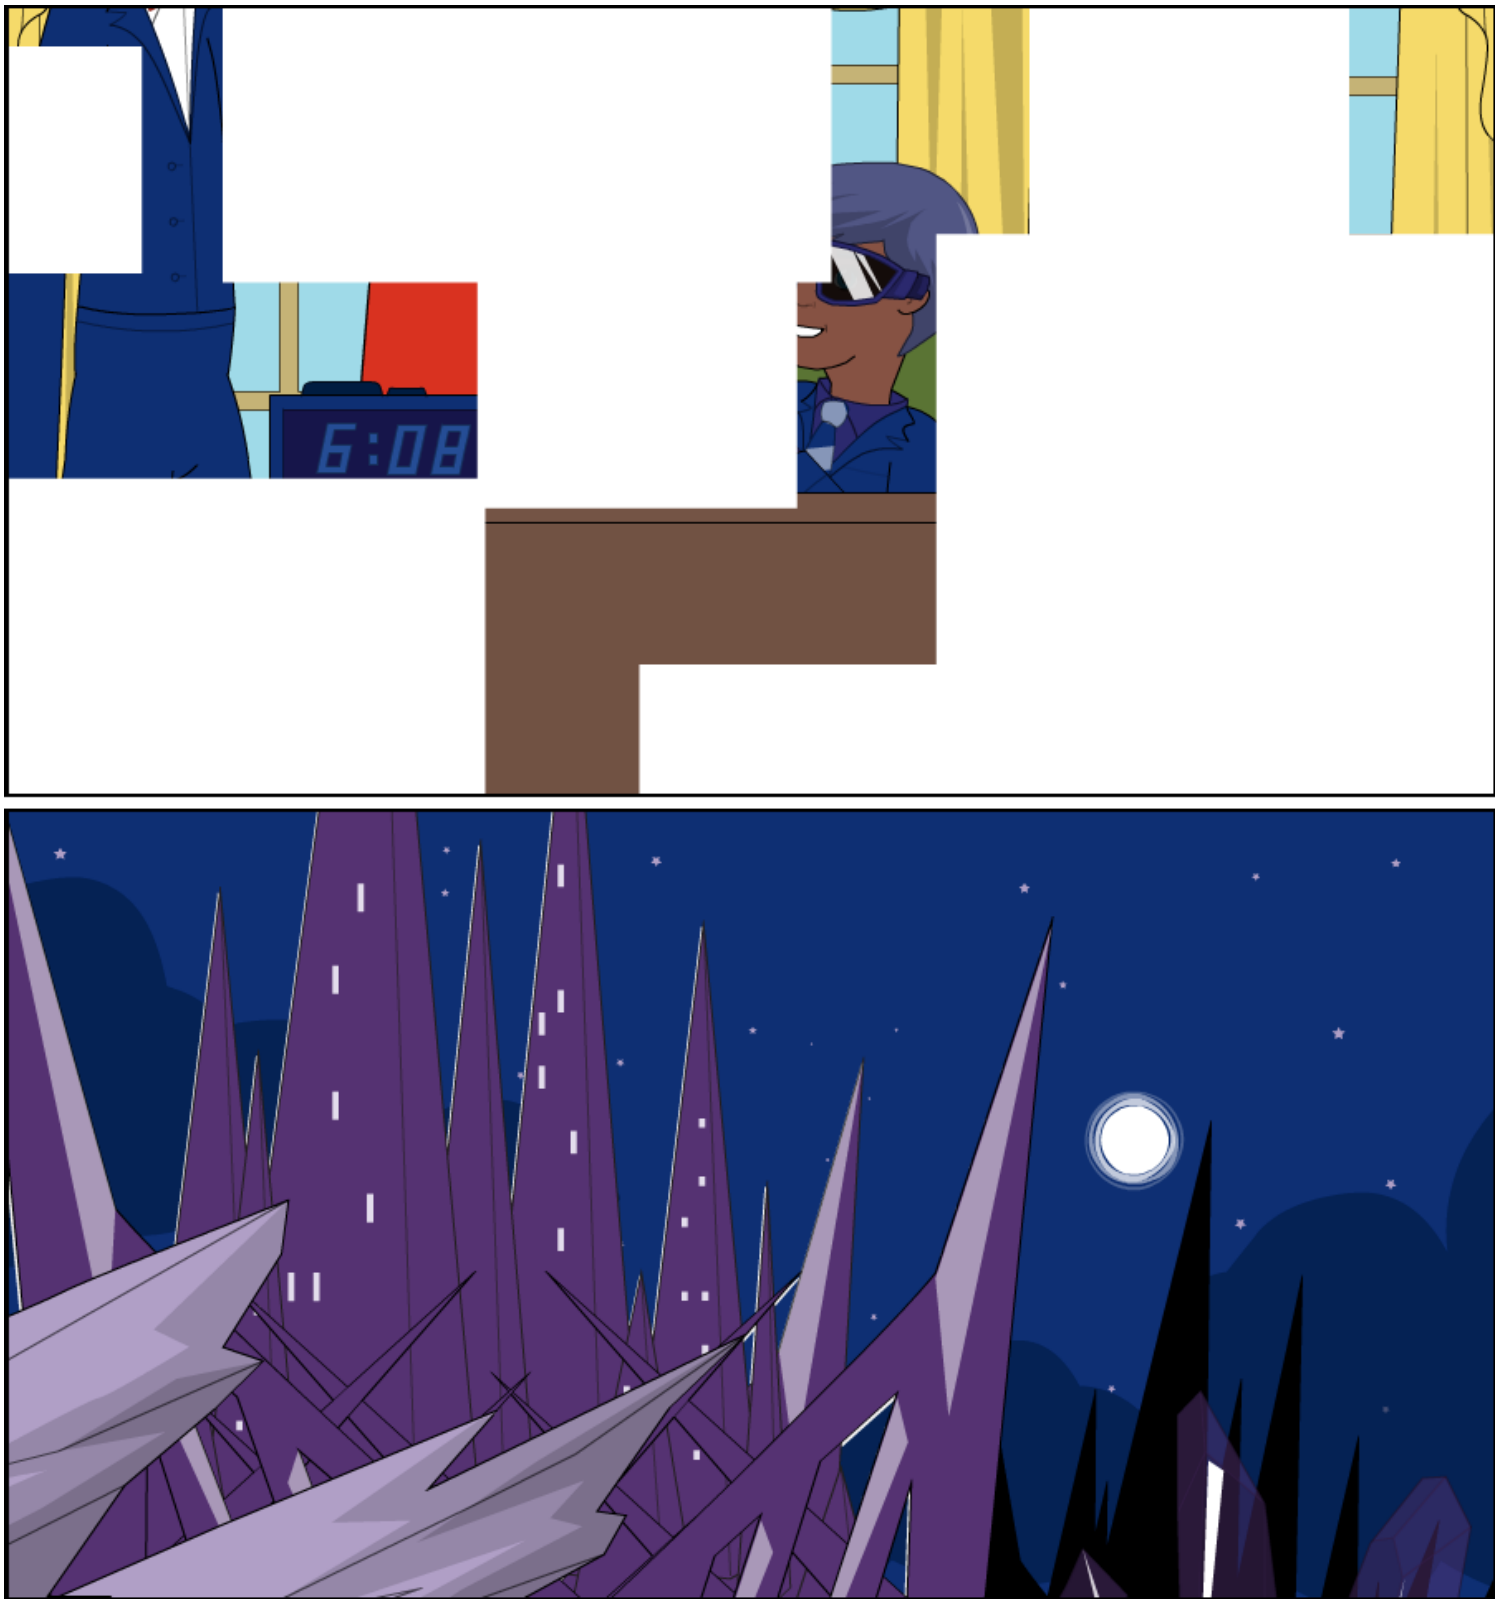
So, Frank. I am you from the future and I am the current president of the US. I am currently 44 years old. We survived the time when Gmo_sniper tried to kill everyone in 2019. If I remember correctly, youre watching this in 2017 just after Gmo_sniper collected 5 infinity stones. Be careful because he will almost kill you on June 4th 2018 at 8:36.
6:08
You will also get a girlfriend around the middle of June called Frankette.

© 2021 PIXTON.COM

6:08
You will also go to space for a month with other residents of Pixtonville. You will also die and get resurrected.
Mr. President, would you like some wine before stopping Gmo_sniper before he destroys the city again and kills everyone in Pixtonville, because he already killed a quarter of Pixtonvilles population?
6:08
No, not now. Thats all I have to say, bye!

© 2021 PIXTON.COM



© 2021 PIXTON.COM

So, I presume you already heard from Frank, our president that Im a supervillain. Frank and the entirety of Pi- this is stupid! Frank, just dont create a shape-shifting monster that frames me which causes that everyone will start to hate me, sometimes just beating me up for no reason at all, which causes me to kill a quarter of Pixtonville and become a supervillain.
GMO_SNIPER
Oh and this is the guy with the eye-patch. He will now travel back in time, go to a different universe, try to kill joeynigro1, get stopped by Thanos and try to stop you as we saw in "Breaking Time & Space 1".

While Im here and I change things in the past, I wont be affected, but if I come back the changes will appear.

But you do have a point. We should talk around about it. There are roles we have to fill in. The person who organizes the food, fun, decorations, lights and maybe the person who buys us time by distracting Glitchy. If you want to fill in for any of these roles, just say so.

I can distract him by using time travel! Also, Frankman64 is the clone of Glitchy so I think inviting him and Tari would make it better and more familiar.

Go show Glitchy your time traveling and Huck and Nat will take care of getting Tari and Frankman here. Tut is in the kitchen making more tacos for the party
Aren't these an uncommon panel size? Probably just me.
Okay!

A COUPLE MINUTES LATER...

We were in there for only a few seconds! I didn't even see the exterior of the machine! All of this on your birthday! What if we accidentally brought something that we weren't supposed to with us?
At least he finally showed it to us!

Welcome to Dimension X
A way people can leave their world behind and make a new one
To create your world tap on the arrow on your right arm
Now think about what do you want to spawn
An elephant
Now choose where you want to put it

The Next day

Looks Like I'll have to get him back to reality
